A Salute

To the more than 200 men of St. George's Carpatho-Russian Church who served in the Armed Forces of this nation during the war. We heartily welcome them in our midst once again, and hope they will assume positions of responsibility in our congregation. Some of these servicemen generously donated towards this church.

Though we cannot thank them adequately, may the good Lord recompense them a hundredfold for their thoughtfulness.

In Memoriam

PAUL SEMIAN

JOHN LUKACHKO

JOHN KACABA

To the sacred memory of these service men who have been called to make the supreme sacrifice, we dedicate this space. We bow our heads in silent tribute to our deceased members and may God grant them eternal rest.

In memoriam of Michael Fenick who went to his death by accidental drowning after his honorable discharge.
